

Call for Papers

9th AILA-Europe Junior Researcher Meeting in Applied Linguistics

6th-8th September 2017, University of Vienna, Austria

The conference focuses on Language(s) in Society. We will welcome paper presentations and posters in the following areas:

- Language Politics & Policies
- Language varieties
- Regional and minority languages
- Language(s) & Education
- Sociolinguistics
- Language & Gender
- Language, Ideology & Power
- Multilingualism
- Transcultural Communication
- Language acquisition & language learning

Besides this conference focus, papers on other areas of applied linguistics are welcome. A paper may present also work in progress.

Abstract Submission

Please, submit your abstract of no more than 150 words (excluding title) via: bit.do/jrm2017
We encourage contributions in languages other than English. Our committee covers the following languages: German, Chinese, Spanish, Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, French, Italian, Slovak, and Hungarian.

Please choose the language which best suits your needs as well as those of your audience.

Key Dates

Submission closes	January 15 th , 2017
Notification of acceptance	March 15 th , 2017
Early bird registration	May 15 th , 2017
Registration for presenters	June 15 th , 2017
Regular registration	August 15 th , 2017

Plenary Speakers

Ruth Wodak (Lancaster University / University of Vienna)
Barbara Seidlhofer (University of Vienna)
Bernd Rüschoff (University of Duisburg-Essen)

Organising Committee

Yasmin El-Hariri, Edna Imamovic-Topcic, Julia Renner, Zuzana Toth, Denis Weger

Contact

Email: jrm2017.linguistik@univie.ac.at
Web: jrm2017.univie.ac.at